Project Duties/Responsibilities:

The Active Life and Arts and Media Specialized Programs (run by AAFS) are a series of recreational programs for people with, but not limited to, a lived Neurodiverse life with a focus on fitness. There is roughly a 1:2 ratio (1 staff or volunteer for every 2 participants). The programs provide opportunities to learn and grow in a physical manner. Including drills and scrimmages amongst participants and staff. The practicum student will work directly with a group of 4-5 AAFS participants with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). The programs are weekly, and the total group is comprised of 12-20 participants.

Practicum students will coach and facilitate programs for the participants. The programs aim to provide opportunities for friendship and social interaction while helping youth improve their:

- Fitness: Practicum students will guide participants through a circuit workout, modelling exercises and modifying movements for those with mobility issues, and encouraging the athletes.
- Mindfulness: Practicum students will assist the coaches in leading relaxing stretching; this will entail modelling poses for the participants and giving guidance to get into poses if needed. It will also include encouraging and modelling relaxed breathing, focus and relaxation.
- Teamwork and Friendship: Students will encourage participants to communicate and work together; this will include modelling an encouraging attitude and stepping back, whenever possible, to allow participants to interact among themselves to build friendships with each other.
